

Want to learn how to row but don't know how to get started? Learn the sport's fundamentals with our exciting new Learn To Row (LTR) options. Prior rowing experience is not required.

Classes are held at Island MetroPark boat house and on the beautiful Great Miami River
104 E Helena St
Dayton, Ohio

Rowing is:

- Smooth, rhythmic and impact free.
- Time efficient workout.
- Exercise for all major muscle groups.
- Anaerobic and aerobic conditioning.
- Excellent way to view wildlife on the river.

Rowing is a lifelong sport for all ages.

Learn To Scull

Eight 2-hour Saturday/Sunday classes starting in a quadruple scull with an experienced instructor and advancing to a single scull rowing on your own. Sessions will be held on four consecutive weekends from 10AM-noon.

Classes are taught by experienced rowers who explain and demonstrate the fundamentals of rowing technique, equipment, boat handling, local traffic patterns, and safety rules.

Completion of all lessons and a competency test must be passed to earn a graduation certificate. A successful completion includes a membership in the GDRA for the remainder of the year.
